- at all times behave in a way that upholds the good reputation of the Adelaide Bowling Club;

Breaches of the Code of Conduct – reporting and resolution

Breaches of the Code of Conduct are to be reported to any member of the Board of Management. Any breach of the Code of Conduct will be resolved calmly, with honesty, dignity, and as far as possible in confidence. As required, the Adelaide Bowling Club, through its Board of Management, reserves the right to make decisions and enforce fair and appropriate measures to resolve a breach of the Code of Conduct. Any reported breach of the Code of Conduct will be investigated, discussed and dealt with by the Board of Management by either a reprimand, suspension, or revoking of club membership, or, in the case of non-club members, banning from the club for a set period or for life. Any breach of State or Commonwealth law shall be referred to the appropriate law enforcement agency. Any Member who is subject to a Breach of the Code of Conduct investigation and does not feel comfortable in representing themselves may assign an advocate or a support person to attend with them.
